

SPRING CLOTHING—M. GUTMAN & CO.

A Fit Costs no more than a Misfit.

There is nothing saved by buying badly fitting clothes. It takes just as long to cut and sew a coat that's too wide or too tight, or a pair of pants with bulging knees as though they fit perfectly. Hence why not buy perfect-fitting clothing, or to be more specific why not

THREE ORDINANCES

That were Considered by the Council Committee last Night.

NO MONEY FOR FOOD INSPECTION.

Coin-in-the-Slot Machines Get a Reduction of the Proposed License Fees—A New Ordinance Intended to Prevent Frauds by Traveling Fakir Merchants Approved.

Last evening the council committee on ordinances had a well attended session. The first matter taken up was the ordinance providing for a food inspector, which was read by Clerk Hank, and then Dr. Caddle offered a substitute.

Mr. Gruse thought the county should take the matter up, and that the city could not by this ordinance secure pure milk. The city's authority does not extend far enough.

Dr. Caddle said there were herds outside of West Virginia which furnished Wheeling milk. He thought an inspection of the herds could be enforced. Butchers, he said, also objected to the killing of unfit animals by country people for sale in Wheeling. He suggested that a representative of the Wheeling Creamery Company, who was present, be heard.

Mr. Gruse thought Wheeling was going too fast. She was putting on metropolitan airs when the treasury could not stand it. He moved to turn it over to the committee on finance for a report as to the ability of the treasury to stand the expense. This carried.

Then the slot machine license law was taken up, and a written opinion from the city solicitor was read, to the effect that council could not by a license tax legalize a game or device illegal under the other laws.

Mr. Richards referred to the device of giving one cigarette to everybody who puts a nickel in the slot, and asked if it was not illegal.

Mr. Menkemiller wanted to know if it was not as legal to play one of the slot gambling machines if a stoppage were given for each nickel, as to use a machine which is intended to furnish chocolate or chewing gum, but very often fails to furnish anything. Colonel White thought the ordinance was entirely explicit and met all the ends desired.

Mr. Menkemiller thought the charge of six dollars on a one-cent machine and twelve dollars on a five-cent machine was inconsistent.

Finally Mr. Richards moved to make the tax on one-cent machines $4 and on five-cent machines $10, instead of $6 and $12, and this was adopted and the ordinance will be reported to council with those amendments.

Chairman Dobbins presented an amended ordinance prepared by Solicitor White to make the ordinance taxing itinerant vendors of goods a license fee more binding in such cases as that of G. G. Wall, now conducting an alleged "fire sale" of clothing, and who was recently fined in the police court and took an appeal. One sweeping clause makes it illegal to advertise a fire, assignee's or executor's, bankrupt or closing-out sale unless it is really that kind of a sale, and requires the vendor to file an affidavit to that effect with the city clerk. Colonel White spoke in favor of this amendment at some length and forcibly. The ordinance, he said, was based on the New York statute on the same subject.

Mr. Gruse moved to report the ordinance favorably, and this was adopted, and the committee adjourned.

Committee Meeting To-night.

This evening the council committees on petitions and remonstrances, police and claims will meet. The business to be considered by the first named committee is the annual saloon licenses, and it is important that every member should be present. Any citizen who has a complaint or protest to file should have it in the hands of the clerk to-day. It is not likely that there will be many objections offered to the granting of licenses.

AT HOME TO CALLERS.

The German American Savings and Loan Association Opens Its Home Office.

The home office of the German American Savings and Loan Association was opened yesterday in room 301, Peabody building. There were many callers during the day to inquire into the plan of operation and considerable additions were made to the stock subscriptions. Thus far the favorite stock has been the installment class, payable at the rate of 50 cents a month, or 12 cents a share weekly.

General Manager Pool told an INTELLIGENCER reporter that business at the start had been above his expectation. He added that the inquiries showed the field that is open to the association. He thought it would be of particular service to Wheeling, because it is prepared to make loans at once to stockholders on approved real estate security.

Mr. Pool will be at the office to see callers and to complete the organization of his force of collectors. He can use some more good men, but they must be high grade and well recommended.

Little Lottie Williams.

"Hearts of New York," as presented at the Grand Opera House last night by Little Lottie Williams and an admirable dramatic and specialty company, is one of the strongest attractions Manager Feinler has presented to his patrons this season. During the performance Lottie Williams displays her talent by impersonating four different characters, a tom-boy girl, a Swede boy, a bootblack and a society girl. She is a great dancer and a most pleasing singer, her rendition of "Sweet Nellie Bawn" being especially charming. Jack Allison sings baritone solos, Charles Robinson as the Irish policeman, Clayton E. White as the sheriff, Beatie Thompson as the Bowery belle and Nellie Marshall as Mrs. McCarthy, all contributed very materially to the evening's entertainment. An especially strong feature is the appearance of Major Doyle, a midget comedian, who sings Irish songs and tells numerous funny stories. With such a good play interpreted by a most competent company, the Grand should be crowded to-night, to-morrow matinee and to-morrow night.

AD KAYES PULLED.

A Malodorous Resort Halted by the Police Last Night.

Early yesterday morning a man with a red face and wild eyes entered the police office and asked Lieut. Gaus: "Is this the office?"

"This is an office; yes. What do you want?"

"P'lice."

"What?"

"P'lice."

"Where?"

"Down hyer."

"Where?"

"Alley 14."

"Where in Alley 14?"

"Eoff street."

"What for?"

"Fussin'."

"Who's fussin'?"

"White people."

The lieutenant told him to go down and wait till the officers came, and he said as he departed:

"All right; right away."

The police have not arrived yet, but it was learned that another man and the taciturn complainant got to wrestling and the other man threw the t. c. over his head; hence the complaint.

Last night Officers Creighton, Buch and Daum raided the home of Ad Kayes, colored, back of the Atlantic engine house. There has been constant complaint of disorder there. Six persons were arrested and locked up, as follows: Ad Kayes, colored; Mag Kayes, his wife, a white woman; Frank Taylor and George Burke, colored; Mary Burke, white; Comer Jones, white. The character of the place will be aired in this morning's police court.
